Gli studi sulle armi antiche stanno conoscendo negli ultimi anni un enorme incremento e diversificazione. Dagli studi di tradizione storico-artistica, museologica o di catalogazione sull'oggetto-arma, fino a quelli di storia militare, economica e produttiva, l'abbondanza e la varietà di libri e articoli ha reso complessa la realizzazione di bibliografie d'ampio respiro. Le armi antiche. Bibliografia ragionata nel Servizio Bibliotecario Nazionale di Carlo De Vita, Marco Merlo e Luca Tosin, si propone di rispondere all'esigenza di un'opera bibliografica unitaria che tenga conto dei più recenti sviluppi della disciplina ologica nei suoi molteplici aspetti. Accanto agli studi generali e tipologici sulle armi, le fortificazioni, le armi bianche e le armi da fuoco, sono raccolti anche gli studi sulle fonti, le armerie, le aste, i cataloghi di mostre e le grandi collezioni, così come gli studi di interesse produttivo e di costume e sulla legislazione vigente in materia di armi. La scelta dei titoli presenti in SBN (Servizio bibliotecario nazionale), deriva dalla volontà degli autori di coniugare la raccolta del materiale bibliografico edito con l'effettiva reperibilità dei testi sul territorio nazionale. Bibliografia quindi, che non sia una semplice raccolta dell'edito, ma una selezione ragionata degli studi disponibili per fornire un utile supporto agli studiosi e agli appassionati di armi antiche.

Aggiornamenti Italian Literature since 1900 in English Translation 1929-2016 An Annotated Bibliography, 1929-2016 University of Toronto Press

This annotated enumerative bibliography lists all English-language translations of twentieth- and twenty-first-century Italian literature. This book offers an overview of how to manage private art collections, providing essential insights on art wealth management, art investment, art governance, and succession planning for art assets. It offers practical recommendations on sound art collection governance, but also examines the background of art markets and price building, including the influence of fashion and trends. Throughout history, art patronage has played an important role in the wealth of ultra-high-net-worth families and led to private museums funded by philanthropist collectors in order to celebrate their own tastes and leave a lasting legacy. Today, as a result of the growth of art investing by a new generation of wealthy collectors, not only artists but also wealthy families, sophisticated investors and their close advisors now face a more complex set of financial and managerial needs. As such, the contributions in this book will be of interest to collecting families, family offices, and professional advisors seeking to integrate art into their overall wealth management strategy, and to scholars in the fields of cultural economics, art dealers, curators, and art lovers.

Medardo Rosso (1858–1928) is one of the most original and influential figures in the history of modern art, and this book is the first historically substantiated critical account of his life and work. An innovative sculptor, photographer, and draftsman, Rosso was vital in paving the way for the transition from the academic forms of sculpture that persisted in the nineteenth century to the development of new and experimental forms in the twentieth. His antimemorial, antiheroic work reflected alienation in the modern experience yet also showed deep feeling for interactions between self and other. Rosso's art was also transnational: he refused allegiance to a single culture or artistic heritage and declared himself both a citizen of the world and a maker of art without national limits. In this book, Sharon Hecker develops a narrative that is an alternative to the dominant Franco-centered perspective on the origin of modern sculpture in which Rodin plays the role of lone heroic innovator. Offering an original way to comprehend Rosso, A Moment's Monument negotiates the competing cultural imperatives of nationalism and internationalism that shaped the European art world at the fin de siècle.

La disamina della pittura sacra del XIX secolo, nella ricchezza ed eterogeneità delle sue proposte, costituisce un tassello fondamentale per la comprensione del dibattito sviluppatosi successivamente nel Novecento. L'Ottocento rappresenta il lento, faticoso "laboratorio" nel quale si rifrequentano i linguaggi del passato, si esauriscono le opzioni linguistiche sterili, si imposta la soluzione al problema di come coniugare in modo credibile l'arte religiosa con la sensibilità dell'uomo moderno. Proprio grazie a questo lavoro continuo, l'arte sacra ha potuto riconsegnarsi, nel XX secolo, alla sensibilità di artisti e uomini di cultura che si sono nuovamente interrogati sul suo significato, sul suo futuro e sulla sua missione.

Italian cinema triumphed globally in the 1960, with directors such as Rossellini, Fellini, and Leone, and actors like Sophia Loren and Marcello Mastroianni known to audiences around the world. But by the end of the 1980s, the Italian film industry was all but dead. The Rise and Fall of the Italian Film Industry traces the rise of the industry from its origins in the 19th century to its worldwide success in the 1960s, and its rapid decline in the subsequent decades. It does so by looking at cinema as an institution – subject to the interplay between the spheres of art, business, and politics at the national and international level. By examining the roles of a wide range of stakeholders (including film directors, producers, exhibitors, the public, and the critics) as well as the system of funding and the influence of governments, author Marina Nicoli demonstrates that the Italian film industry succeeded when all three spheres were aligned, but suffered and ultimately failed when they each pursued contradictory objectives. This in-depth case study makes an important contribution to the long-standing debate about promoting and protecting domestic cultures, particularly in the face of culturally dominant and politically- and economically-powerful creative industries from the United States.

The Rise and Fall of the Italian Film Industry will be of particular interest to business and economic historians, cinema historians, media specialists, and cultural economists.

Transire mare. Con questo titolo il 2° Convegno nazionale di Cultura navale e marittima – CNM2 di Genova ha affrontato, nel 2016, il complesso rapporto tra l'uomo ed il mare nelle sue diverse connotazioni e sfumature. Il mare come confine geografico e legame, come limite da superare e come ambiente con cui confrontarsi per crescere. Questo è il tema conduttore di una serie di saggi di alto profilo che, presentati durante due giornate di convegno molto denso, sono stati raccolti grazie all'impegno di un nutrito gruppo di specialisti del settore. Questo volume, che non è un semplice resoconto, offre nei diversi settori in cui si articola uno spaccato delle più recenti ricerche, con l'intento di fornire ai lettori strumenti utili per la comprensione e l'approfondimento delle diverse sfaccettature di cui si compone il millenario rapporto tra l'uomo e il mare.
