Today, employers are more concerned than ever about protecting their interests -- trade secrets, inventions, customers, processes, and more. Often, covenants not to compete are being relied upon to safeguard these interests. This book covers these concerns with sample forms and practice materials on litigation procedures, including discussions of alternative dispute resolution mechanisms. In this two-volume set, you'll find general legal principles for forming, drafting, and implementing covenants not to compete; an examination of covenant-not-to-compete clauses in both general and specialized terms; and theoretical and practical information for use when confronting issues involving covenants not to compete.

Using an innovative storytelling style to bring cases and legal concepts to life, LEGAL ENVIRONMENT, 6E presents a full range of legal environment topics in a series of brief, quick-reading chapters. Readers see the relevance of legal issues to their own career paths with this book's unique emphasis on the business applications of each concept. Expanded coverage highlights international law, employment discrimination and other legal topics of interest to today's learners, including social media, technology, and cutting-edge Business Law I Essentials is a brief introductory textbook designed to meet the scope and sequence requirements of courses on Business Law or the Legal Environment of Business. The concepts are presented in a streamlined manner, and cover the key concepts necessary to establish a strong foundation in the subject. The textbook follows a traditional approach to the study of business law. Each chapter contains learning objectives, explanatory narrative and concepts, references for further reading, and end-of-chapter questions. Business Law I Essentials may need to be supplemented with additional content, cases, or related materials, and is offered as a foundational resource that focuses on the baseline concepts, issues, and approaches. In Georgia it is the Georgia Secretary of State's office that accepts licensure applications from contractors. One must have a professional license issued by this office in order to begin new construction works in Georgia. The exam has two parts, the first being the Business and Law test, which is covered by this book.

The test covers a wide range of fundamental topics but this study notes will focus on topics related to accounting, finance, purchasing, cost control, human resources and the rules/regulations related to the building and construction profession. There is no way you can pass the exam without having solid real world experience. Our notes give you knowledge, principles and concepts. To master the topics, you must be "in the field" - you need to go through the real world plans, the various contract documents and the various administrative paperworks all by yourself. And you need to know how the experts get things done. To succeed in the exam, you also need to read as many reference books as possible. There is no single book that can cover everything!

Fostering Better Business Thinkers with the Law in Mind An ETHICAL DECISION-MAKING framework, first introduced in Chapter 2, is a cohesive theme throughout cases questions and other material. An emphasis on CRITICAL THINKING, backed by co-author Neil Browne's expertise in this area, teaches students how to frame and re-frame a question/issue. A focus on BUSINESS RELEVANCE consistently ties legal issues back to the core business curriculum. Students leave with an appreciation of why understanding the law in the context of the business is critical to their future success as a business leader. With Connect, students benefit from critical thinking practice with Interactives, a ****Testimonial****I just wanted to drop you guys a line and tell you that I passed my final CLEP exam last Monday which gives me all of the credits I need to graduate. I have taken 30 credits worth of CLEP exams and I've passed them all by using your study guides. I actually purchased one of your study guides and failed my first test. I didn't fail because of your guide though, I failed because I didn't manage my time effectively and I ran short. I looked at your study guide after failing though, and a lot of the information on your study guide was very relevant to what was on the test. So, I tried again with a different test and a different study guide of yours. I passed. This pattern continues for 30 credits. I
