In this first installment of a planned annual series of New Exploits of... novellas, authors put a new twist on the classic fairy tales Cinderella, The Little Mermaid, Snow White, and Beauty and the Beast. Fish Out of Water (Kallmaker); Nobody believed the curse that the evil warlock put on Ariel until it came true. On her twenty-first birthday she awoke in a strange bed, next to a mortal woman, in a land that bore no resemblance to her own. She must not speak for a year, no matter the need, or she will never be able to go home again. And home has much to offer: her crown, her magic, and the endless pleasures of the Sidhe Court. The memories of the glorious, wonderfully irresponsible, luxurious days and nights keep her silent... until the love, and lovemaking, of that very mortal woman, leaves her yearning to say just one word: Yes. A Butch in Fairytale Land (Szymanski); Need help? Cody is there. Friends call her misguided. Ex-friends say stalker. Chided on every side for acting before she thinks, Cody is delighted to awaken in a fairy tale world where damsel after damsel not only needs help, but Cody is the only butch around to save the day. This encouraging inspirational book is the beginning of a series that offers some guidance on ways to include God in a modern relationship, with practical ideas on bringing you closer to your partner and God. After all Christ has your heart. It is time to take the pressure off of trying to date "biblically" and instead see the entirety of our interactions with others (including how we date) as an opportunity to connect with God, to become our best and reflect Him to the people He brings into our lives. There is truly nothing more "biblical" than that. It is easy to include God in our spiritual lives, why not include Him in our relational world as well? Throughout God's Word, He encourages us again and again to bring our concerns and desires to Him. He cares about the things that concern us, and He is longing to connect with us in a way that is meaningful. Our relationships can be the instrument that draws us close to God, as we seek Him for wisdom, guidance and discernment along the way. This is a great publication about beauty, sensuality, charm, elegance, feminine seduction and more, celebrated through photography.
