This title consists of a series of IQ tests, starting at a normal level and progressing through to an advanced stage.

It's puzzle nirvana for crossword lovers who have just a few minutes to spare, but still crave a challenge. Adapted from the popular Mensa 10-Minute Crossword Puzzles Page-A-Day Calendar, Mensa 10-Minute Crossword Puzzles strikes a perfect balance: The puzzles are tough enough to be sanctioned by Mensa, the internationally famous high-IQ society, but are designed to be solvable in ten minutes or less. Expertly written by puzzle master Fred Piscop, Mensa member, author of the Mensa calendar, and frequent crossword contributor to both The New York Times and The Washington Post, these cleverly themed crossword puzzles will appeal to both seasoned solvers and novices looking to hone their skills. They are an addictive addition to your morning routine (just add coffee); perfect for evening downtime; just right for your commute on the subway, or while waiting at the doctor's office or sitting in a restaurant—anytime you need a mental pick-me-up. The book's chunky format, which works so well for puzzle books like The Original Sudoku series, fits easily into a purse or bag. An answer key is included at the back of the book.

Sudoku for the super-smart Mensa members are known for their finely-honed logic skills--and that's just what it takes to become an expert at sudoku. So it's no surprise that this organization for the highly intelligent has put together a huge collection of these sizzling-hot puzzles--a whopping 534 games to sate the obsessed solver's craving. They start out relatively easy for the newcomer, and get harder (and more fun) as you go along.

Don't think too hard or you'll never solve these logic puzzles and riddles. The answers to all 187 are easy once you catch the tricky wording. How can you tie a knot in a napkin by holding one end in each hand without letting go of it? Impossible, you say (or your friends will say, if you bet them). But: Cross your arms and hold a tip of the napkin in each hand. When you uncross your arms, the knot will be formed! Now try this riddle: I climbed up a cherry tree, where I found cherries. I did not pick cherries, nor did I leave cherries. How can you explain this? Answer: I climbed up a cherry tree with two cherries in my hand. I picked only one. I left the other one on the tree. I did not "pick cherries," because I "picked a cherry." Take this dare: My bird can fly faster than any supersonic plane. Here's how: If you put my bird inside any plane and make it fly in the same direction as the plane, it will go faster than the plane. 96 pages, 52 b/w illus., 5 3/8 x 8 1/4.

Contains a series of puzzles, exercises and games, especially devised to inspire new ways of thinking and looking at things. In this title, each section is a self-contained course on one particular aspect of brain power, and also directs you to games and activities included within the pack.

Sharpen your mental reflexes and have fun doing it! The newest book in American Mensa's Brilliant Brain Workout series, this book is full of practical and necessary advice on how to keep your brain in tip-top shape. No matter how old you are, your brain is of utmost importance to everything you do—we owe it to ourselves to stay mentally fit! This book will help you do just that. From logic tests to word squares to Kakuro puzzles, this book has the essential brain teasers for keeping your mind healthy. Whether you are looking to be able to focus during those long meetings or you just want to keep your mind sharp, these puzzles will be sure to increase your brain efficiency while providing a ten-minute workout for your cognitive lobes. Brainiacs on the prowl for challenging fun will find everything they're looking for in these cunning conundrums. Puzzle master Terry Stickels has created a mind-melting collection filled with hundreds of diverse and fiendishly tricky problems--including wordplay, math, analytic reasoning, logic, visual dilemmas, and code breaking. Figure out the next number in a series, find hidden phrases, and determine what a three-dimensional object would look like from two-dimensional drawings. Every puzzle provides a workout that strengthens mental muscles. And while these brainteasers do require concentration, they don't demand any special training or high-level math skills. A little practice, patience, and imagination are all it takes.

Are you a genius? Could you qualify to join Mensa, the international society for high-IQ people? The only requirement for membership is to score in the top two per cent on a standard Mensa-supervised intelligence test. Members include persons who have never finished school and those with advanced degrees, from scientists and investors to housewives and students. MENSA BOOK OF BRAIN TEASERS presents puzzles and brain teasers similar to those used by Mensa in its intelligence tests. The puzzles are all graded from easy to very difficult, and, despite the occasional red herring, every one presents a fair challenge. Letter sequences, anagrams, logic boxes, power problems, hidden messages, magic squares and complex crosswords, all provide a thorough intellectual workout. Answers are given at the back of the book, and where necessary, explained. Find out if you are a Mensa genius. Attempt the puzzles in this book. Measure your score and rate your genius.

How well do you think logically? Find out with these puzzles. But don't forget the degree of difficulty increases as you go.

What could be more appealing to Mensa members--or anyone who enjoys a good challenge--than a cunning test of intelligence and logic? That's exactly what these 250 puzzles provide. The trick to kakuro is in making it all add up: the game begins with a grid that looks like a crossword, except that some squares contain small numbers in the corner. Fill in all the empty boxes using the numbers 1 to 9 without repeats so that the sum of each horizontal set of digits equals the number in the black triangle to its left, and the sum of each vertical set of digits equals the number in the triangle above it. The kakuro puzzles start out simple...and get more difficult as the book progresses.

Provides information about the Mensa organization and offers sample questions on trivia, vocabulary, analogies, math, reasoning, and logic

Presents a collection of sixty-second, no-pencil puzzles, including vowel exchange, rhyme time, and repeaters.

GCHQ is a top-secret intelligence and security agency which recruits some of the very brightest minds. Over the years, their codebreakers have helped keep our country safe, from the Bletchley Park breakthroughs of WWII to the modern-day threat of cyberattack. So it comes as no surprise that, even in their time off, the staff at GCHQ love a good puzzle. Whether they're recruiting new staff or challenging each other to the toughest Christmas quizzes and treasure hunts imaginable, puzzles are at the heart of what GCHQ does. Now they're opening up their archives of decades' worth of codes, puzzles and challenges for everyone to try.

This book contains a fiendish collection of over 150 mind games to tax your powers of logic in ways you had never thought possible! All kinds of logic problem are included in this Mensa-branded book that will ensure your brain cells never have a chance to rest! The book doesn't follow a structure - the puzzles are not in any particular order by type or difficulty - so the reader can never be sure what logical challenge lurks over the page.

Try any of these 150 word, number, and logic puzzles, and you'll encounter some surprising new ways to analyze, observe, and decide. You've been warned, so don't get frustrated when you feel yourself getting pushed out of the ruts of your usual problem-solving skills. Try these sample warmup exercises: 1. If Molly's daughter is my daughter's mother, what am I to Molly? 2. Which is larger, one-third times one-third of a dozen dozen, or one-third dozen halved and cubed? 3. How old is the man who told his friend, "Four years from now I'll be twice as old as I was fourteen years ago"? Answers: 1. I am Molly's daughter. 2. The first calculation is larger. 3. He's 32 years old.

Puzzle these out! Math and logic become more fun than ever when they're turned into brainteasing games. Some of these puzzles use cards or marbles; others have diagrams, grids, and lively illustrations; still more present their questions as a story or riddle. Here are just two examples: Look at this sentence: Dale is wrong. Using all these letters, can you spell a single word? Or try Non-aligned Pawns: How must the 8 white and 8 black pawns in a chess set be placed on a board so that no three pawns end up in the same horizontal, vertical, or diagonal line? They'll really test your smarts!

This book contains a fiendish collection of over 150 mind games to tax your powers of logic in ways you had never thought possible! All kinds of logic brainteasers are included in this Mensa-branded book that will ensure your brain cells never have a chance to rest!

A collection of more than six hundred puzzles and brain teasers includes magic squares, crosswords, anagrams, and missing numbers.

Take your brain to the gym and give it a good workout--no pain, no gain!

This gigantic new puzzle book from Mensa includes more than 500 puzzles, from cunning numerical conundrums and testing word games to logic teasers, enigmatic lateral thinking tests, and abstract visual problems. Because they don't follow any special pattern, you'll never know what fiendish challenge is lying in wait on the next page. Get some practice in puzzle thinking with the easy section, build mental muscles in the medium section, and gain a fighting chance for the really hard part. No special skills or abilities are needed, just a bit of common sense, some basic literacy, the ability to think things through, and the stubborn willpower and determination not to be defeated by a mere puzzle.

An old favorite--Mensa Math & Logic Puzzles--gets a brand-new look: it's now in color! And the puzzles are fantastic: they're the kind of challenge found at the World Puzzle Championships, and they require no language to solve. For example, you are given a grid of dots that has some numbers (0, 1, 2, or 3) in them. You need to connect the dots in one continuous path so that each number is surrounded by that many lines. So a "3" means that three of the four sides around it must be connected. All the puzzles are similar abstract exercises, and all have unique solutions that can be reached using pure logic. They're difficult--and really satisfying exercise for your brain.

Riddles and Conundrums is a fiendish, unstructured collection of riddles, lateral thinking problems, conundrums, mind mazes, posers and baffling brain twisters. Dip in anytime and solve a puzzle or two, or work your way through over 100 games and puzzles to strengthen your brain power.

Acclaimed teacher and puzzler Evelyn B. Christensen has created one hundred brand-new perplexing and adorably illustrated games for young puzzlers. There is something for every type of learner here, including number puzzles, word puzzles, logic puzzles, and visual puzzles. She has also included secret clues the solver can consult if they need a hint, making the puzzles even more flexible for a wide skill range of puzzle-solvers. Arranged from easy to difficult, this is a great book for any beginning puzzler. With the game types intermixed throughout, it's easy for a child who thinks they like only math or only word puzzles to stumble across a different kind of puzzle, get hooked, and discover—oh, they like that kind, too! Regularly practicing a variety of brain games can help improve and develop memory, concentration, creativity, reasoning, and problem-solving skills.

Mensa's® Fun Puzzle Challenges for Kids is a learning tool everyone will enjoy! And, the word is...challenging! These clever word games will make your brain work overtime. Each has a little twist, something unusual to keep crossword and puzzle lovers on their toes. Do Around and Abouts by searching for the letters that fit in a circular grid. Work it out from Tops to Bottoms, where two letters fit into every square. Answers to Weavers clues form a continuous chain. Plus: Quadrants, Crazy Eights, Catching Some Z's, Honeycombs, and other great puzzlers.

Take the Mensa challenge! These extraordinarily entertaining puzzles can confound even those with high IQs—and that's what makes them such delightfully tricky fun. A few can be solved relatively quickly, but the hardest may seem nearly impossible to crack. Give your skills a real workout on numerical conundrums, word games, lateral thinking problems, and riddles. Brainteasers, arranged in order of difficulty, train the mind and provide a good time all at once. The most complex bafflers include chess, logic, and spatial puzzles. Here's a small sampler of what's inside! A farmer has twenty sheep, ten pigs, and ten cows. If we call the pigs cows, how many cows will he have? Which three boys' names are anagrams of one another? Answers: 1. Ten cows. We can call the pigs cows, but that doesn't make them cows. 2. Arnold, Roland, and Ronald. "These visually unique braintwisters will put your puzzle-solving abilities to the ultimate test!"--P. [4] of cover.

Test your wits with this all-new collection of mindbusters from Mensa, the high-IQ society.
